Intro narrative by Carl Vasta

Hi, my name is Carl Vasta and I would like to welcome you to the Bible Seeds section here, at Understanding God’s Word. This is where I get to comment on biblical readings and stories that brings the bible into what’s happening to us in our daily lives.

I’ll touch on such topic as Family Prayer or Why I Believe There Is A God. I’ll talk about what was predicted that makes these the Terrible Times In The Last Days or how to Have A Daily Meaningful Relationship With God.

Today's topic is CONVERSATIONS WITH GOD

There was once was a great Emperor who confided to his friend that he discovered that “he was god!”

His friend asked him how he came to know that he was god and the Emperor said, “I find that every time I pray to god, I end up talking to myself!”

Now I don’t know if that Emperor had a conscience, which is defined as a sense of right and wrong, or he had a super ego.

It has long been said, “Let your conscience be your guide”, but maybe he heard “Let your conscience be your god!” Some people don’t even have a conscience because it tends to get in the way of business, love, friendship, politics and the pursuit of personal happiness.

But if you have a conscience, which is the presence of morality, the sense of doing what is right and doing what is wrong, it was given to you by God and for good reason.

It can also be known as the Holy Spirit which confronts you when you intentionally do something wrong or bad and may come to you in a voice or feeling saying; “You shouldn’t have stolen that”, or “Do you really want to dishonor your love for your wife or husband?” The conscience encourages us to live right and do good to those around us.

In Romans Chapter 2: Verses 12-16, New Living Translation – Paul tells us: Quote

¹² When the Gentiles sin, they will be destroyed, even though they never had God’s written law. And the Jews, who do have God’s law, will be judged by that law when they fail to obey it. For merely listening to the law doesn’t make us right with God. It is obeying the law that makes us right in his sight. ¹⁴

Even Gentiles, who do not have God’s written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. ¹⁵ They demonstrate that God’s law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right. ¹⁶

And this is the message I proclaim—that the day is coming when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge everyone’s secret life. Unquote

Also, when you speak to God, he answers you through your conscience. You will find it's like having a conversation with a friend who loves and understands you.

Tell him about your situations and share your feelings; "I don't know what to do about this situation and I need help Lord!" Thank him for His help and His great love for His creation.

But most important of all ... LISTEN TO HIM! He will give you an idea how to handle life's problems. He will help you do the right things. He will strengthen your faith and let you know how much he loves you and is always there for you.
