Intro narrative by Carl Vasta

Hi, my name is Carl Vasta and I would like to welcome you to the Bible Seeds section here, at Understanding God’s Word. This is where I get to comment on biblical readings and stories that brings the bible into what’s happening to us in our daily lives.

I’ll touch on such topic as Family Prayer or Why I Believe There Is A God. I’ll talk about what was predicted that makes these the Terrible Times In The Last Days or how to Have A Daily Meaningful Relationship With God.

Today's topic is THE BIG MOVE

Recently the place where I have rented for thirteen years was sold and the new owner, in order to maintain his new investment raised the rent from $775 a month to $1250 a month.

Needless to say, I could not afford the new rent considering I would now be paying for a water bill which included the fees for the sour line which added another $100 expense to the budget.

My four sons and their wives offered to help me and I was blessed to hear that but I did not want to cause them financial trouble because I feel that the Lord is telling me it's time to move on from where I was.

One of my sons invited me to move into their house. They are presently working from another location and saw it as an opportunity to have someone at their house while they are away.

I am glad for their kindness and I'm happy to pay for the utilities and keep the house and the yard up while they are away.

Besides the normal adjustments like having the mail changed to a P.O. Box and notifying other people of your move, you have all the stuff you acquired for years and now you have to sort what you want and what you really need.

After gathering a life time of pictures, movies, knick knacks, dishes, glasses, an assortment of pots, pans and all the silverware and gadgets to cook food that I never use anymore, because at almost 78 years old, I've graduated to paper plates, foam cups, plastic utensils and things that are easy for me to use and not have to wash!

Another of my sons invited me to store all the big stuff, (refrigerators, bed, couches, a toaster convection oven with a cabinet stand, washing machine and dryer in a part of his garage so I didn't have to pay a storage fee until I decided what I was going to do.

On the day I finished moving into my son's house, I was depressed because I had puzzled as much stuff in the garage as I could but there was still boxes and plastic tubs of stuff.

I prayed to the Lord to help to know what to do and as I was sitting there in my depression, the Lord spoke to my mind and said,

“Did you ever see a woman walking around town with a little dog or pet in her purse? You are the pet in the purse!”

“What do you mean?” I said.

He said, “Did you ever see what women carry in their purse? Half of the time when they want to find something, they have to dump out on the table or couch to find it! You are living in someone's purse and you have to get rid of all the things you don't use and will never use. You have been dragging these things around for years and now they're sitting in your view saying, 'What are you going to do with me now?'

So I started to make daily trips to the 'Good Will' and 'Salvation Army' Stores and decided which was good and which would hit the trash can.

During this time, I had to decide what I really use in my life. One of the things for me to keep was my synthesizer keyboard and musical equipment and the other is my computer where I work on my web site and my podcasts.

In the process of sorting, I've decided what I want to do with the rest of my life however long or short it is or where ever I am. I find great satisfaction in telling people about their Creator and how he loves them. I try to encourage them to love God, the Father, Jesus his Son, and the Holy Spirit and have a good relationship with them.

I do not do this for my recognition but guide you to the one who really loves you – that is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Because my website and podcasts don't have any advertisements or anything for sale, I'm not overly concerned about the number of people who come in to them daily and those who come into my website: carlvasta.com, can download and listen to everything for free!

I started my website for the children God gave me so they might understand the bible and His word easier and come fully to Him. So I prepare each message praying that one of you will take it to heart, knowing what Jesus said in the book of Luke, Chapter 15: Verse 7

Jesus said,

"In the same way, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one who gives up their life of sin and seeks God's ways than the ninety nine who have been living faithfully in God."

Now, when it is my time to leave this Earth and change my address to the Kingdom Of Heaven and do THE BIG MOVE, I won't have to pack and move one darn thing, not even this body.
Halleluiah!

- Back Ground Music Starts and .....
