On Christ- mas Eve, I went for a walk a- long a bu- sy street Ne- ver ex- pect- ing the sight I'd see or the man I'd meet He was dressed up in a pin- stripe suit, a styl- ish hat and tie There was an old black book that he waved in his hand at the cars that were pass- ing by (chorus) And he said, there'd ne- ver be a Ru- dolph, with his nose so bright And San- ta would n't fly from the North Pole on a "round the wor- ld" flight There would n't be pret- ty pre- sents on the tree with all the lights if the lit- tle ba- by Je- sus had n't been born in Beth- le- hem to- night (Verse 2) He was stand- ing on the cor-
