

Mall-Mart At Three In The Morning

Words & Music by Carl R. Vasta © 2005 - All Rights Reserved

C F C Am

(1) I'm roam - ing through Mall - Mart at three in the morn - ing just

Dm G7 C F

search - ing for that per - fect gift The ais - les are filled with large

C Am Dm G7 C

pal - ates of box - es and small bins through which I can sift There's hol - i - day mu - sic from speak - ers a - bove, play - ing car - ols of winter and jin - gles of love I'm roam - ing through Mall - mart at

Dm G7 C D7

G7 C F

C Am D7 G7 C

three in the morn - ing just hav - ing a won - der - ful time (2) I'm

C F C Am Dm

roam - ing through Mall - mart at three in the morn - ing, no peo - ple to

G7 C F C Am

get in my way I'm grate - ful to all who in - vent - ed this sea - son, this

Dm G7 C Dm G7 C

sec - u - lar hol - i - day I'm fil - ling my bas - ket with pre - sents ga -

D7 G7

lore Then I'll fin - ish my shop - ping at the dol - lar store I'm

C F C Am D7
 roam -ing through Mall- mart at three in the morn- ing just hav- ing a G7 C C F C
 won- der- ful time ( 3 ) I'm roam- ing through Mall- mart at three in the Am Dm G7 C C
 morn- ing, it real- ly is some- thing to see The clerks are all F C Am Dm G7 C
 yawn- ing with glazed ov- er eyes, home in bed, you know, they'd rat- her be
 Dm G7 C D7
 Oh, San- ta and rein- deer are all at the door And a ran- ov- er
 G7 C F
 grand- ma is still on the floor I'm roam -ing through Mall- mart at C Am D7 G7 C
 three in the morn- ing just hav- ing a won- der- ful time